PTSA /AFTERPROM 2017

Attention all FHS Parents, ALL grade levels:

The PTSA and After Prom Committee needs volunteers for planning the 2017 event. The After Prom event is a party held at the completion of prom for all seniors and their guests in a Substance Abuse Free Environment. This is a productive volunteer opportunity to make a positive and healthy difference in our FHS school and neighborhood communities.

The "kick-off" meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 16th at 7PM in the FHS Library. Join us to learn more. Parents from ALL grade levels are encouraged to attend. Email or call Hope Fribush if you are interested or have any questions email: fhsafterpromcommittee@gmail.com or 410-241-0362.

Stay connected by following After Prom on Twitter @fhsafterprom17.

Talk about choices! Baltimore County Public Schools offers more than 100 magnet programs for elementary, middle, and high school students, AND every comprehensive high school offers a variety of Career and Technical Education programs. Add to that JROTC programs and the strong BCPS partnership with the Community College of Baltimore County -- and the result is that BCPS students have tremendous opportunities to begin exploring career options while still in school and to choose areas for indepth study.
